NEW BUSINESS

- The Clerk distributed personnel title changes and persons needed for the future 2006 NYS Budget for Recreation. All will review to see if any changes should be made. The report is due next month.
- Trustee View will get cost for another set of letters for our new sign. Perhaps two sets will be needed. The Board will discuss this next month.
- The traffic light cycle on Columbia Street and East/West Center Street will be checked. Trustee Eisenhut is concerned that the cycle may be out of sync with traffic needs.

- Trustee View discussed his plan for Make-A-Difference Day. Beginning on that day in October and continuing through Thanksgiving Day, he would like to collect toys, canned goods and clothing for the victims of the Hurricane areas of the South. He is hoping to obtain donations of use of two tractor-trailers. . . one to be parked at the Municipal Building and one to be parked at MOVAC to be fitted then transported to the areas. Much discussion continued. The Board would like to obtain a list of needed items before we just collect any items. Mohawk Fire Department may help. Local businesses may help. More information will be coming as Ed organizes the project.

FINANCIAL

- P & L report was distributed.
- Approval of ABS #7 as presented on MOTION by Trustee View SECOND by Trustee Cryer and CARRIED.
- Permission to spend up to $75.00 on an ad to support and thank Mohawk Firemen was made by Trustee View, SECOND by Trustee Eisenhut and CARRIED.
